DIRAPPOINTED.—Some Democrat—"of immense brain power," as Col. Wilson would put it, started a rumor last night that the New York majority had been cut down to 5,000, and would not probably reach more than 1,000 in the end if the State went for Garnield at all. As drowning men catch at straws, so did the "great unwashed" grasp at the straw thus thrown to them. Boys, men, old and young, rushed to the Repiter office to hear the report confirmed, but no confirmation came, and as usual they left unsatisfied.

The audience was not large, but it was evident they came hoping to receive spiritual benefit.

The following is one of the hymns of the Salvation army, sung to the tune of the "Swet By-and-By:"

"Swet By-and-By:"

"The Catches on that afternoon will only cost fifteen cents to big and small.

Wet By-and-by:"

We've a band that shall conquer the foo,

If we fight in the arrecath of the King.

With the bword of the Fpirit we know

We shall sinners to Calvary being.

2 We have conquered in times that are past, And we've scattered the fee from the field, Then we'll fight for the Kirg still the last, And the Fword of the opirit we'll wield.

3 Our foe may be mighty and brave,
And the fighting be hard and severe.
But the king is the mighty to make,
And in conflict he always is near.

In the name of the King we will fight
With our banners unjuried to the breze,
We will battle for God and the right,
And the kingdom of Satan we'll saize.

8 Ever true to the Army and God, We will fight in the name of the King, We shall win with the Fire and the blood, And the world to His feet we shall bring. —Capt. Hodgson, S. A.

Pains would commence in the hip and extend to the knee, and down to the foot. Just as soon as she would retire for the night, it would become far more severe—breaking up her ir rest, inducing sleeplessness, and making her sick. We employed the best medical belop in the city. In the course of medication, a severe attack of bleeding at the noce resulted, lasting about four hours, which nearly cost her life. Nothing produced any permanent benefit. Finally she was induced to try St. Jacobs Oll, and when she had used one fifty cent bottle of it, she was entirely relieved of the pains and rested quietly and easily. Whether or not Wing Lee regales his Celestial self on fricasseed Norway rats, or lunches on wind pudding, air sauce and peach leaf tea, is not known to any transtworthy degree.

But it seems to be a known truth that the Democrats approached Wing Lee with an invitation to join in their parade in this city on the Saturday evening prier to the late election. For what purpose his presence was desired is another mystery we do not pretend to unravel. Wing Lee, however, with the characteristic regard of his countrymen for the adage that "Time is money," shook his pigtail dubiously and answered:

"Me no gottee timee."

"But we will pay you for your time," urged the Democrate, "and you shall ride in a wagon; we will not ask you to walk in the mud; come along."

"No, me no gottee timee," protested the Chinaman. "What plocession fo'?—who is it palade?"

"It is a Democratic Procession," was the reply.
